PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of H.R. 5532 is to redesignate the Reconstruction Era National Monument as the Reconstruction Era National Historical Park.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

The years following the Civil War, known as the Reconstruction Era, were a time of significant transformation for the United States. Reconstruction addressed how the 11 States that had seceded from the Union would be re-integrated, as well as how the civil rights and integration into free society of four million formerly enslaved individuals could be secured. Intense controversy and even violence erupted over these issues.

During Reconstruction, Congress passed three constitutional amendments that permanently abolished slavery, defined birth-right citizenship, guaranteed equal protection under the law, and prohibited voter discrimination based on race, color, or previous condition of servitude (13th, 14th, and 15th amendments).¹ Congress also established the Freedmen’s Bureau to undertake needed relief efforts and assist newly freed individuals with reaching full citizenship. With the assistance of the Bureau, African Americans established schools and independent churches, negotiated employment contracts, began voting, and were elected to political office.²

Many in the South, however, believed that these new official actions had been illegally imposed on them by the government and amplified their resistance. Election fraud and State laws passed to circumvent equal voting rights resulted in disenfranchisement for African Americans. Some Southern whites resorted to intimidation and violence to restore the antebellum social order.³ For a brief time, the U.S. Army was used to protect the rights of new voters and quell violence. In the late 1870s and 1880s, as Congress grew wary of using military force to enforce African American rights, the political tides turned and the Reconstruction Era came to a close.

The Reconstruction Era National Monument was established in January 2017 as a unit of the National Park System by a proclamation issued by President Obama under the Antiquities Act (54 U.S.C. 320301). It consists of a collection of federally-owned historic sites located in Beaufort County, South Carolina—an area that has been called the birthplace of Reconstruction.⁴ For example, Beaufort County was home to the “Port Royal Experiment” initiated in 1861, just months after the Civil War began. With the backing of President Lincoln and the assistance of Northern charity organizations, 10,000 former slaves were allocated land and worked to build a new community at this site.⁵ In and around Beaufort County during Reconstruction, some of the first African Americans enlisted as soldiers and founded the first African American schools and hospitals. Beaufort was also the home of Robert Smalls, a former slave who became a political leader—serving on two State constitutional conventions, in the State legislature, and in the U.S. Congress.⁶

The National Park Service completed a theme study on the Reconstruction Era in 2017. The report reiterated the significance of historic sites in Beaufort County that were already listed as National Historic Landmarks and supported the decision to designate the sites as the Reconstruction Era National Monument. The report also recommended other locations in Beaufort County that could be considered for further study to evaluate their significance and integrity for possible nomination as National Historic Landmarks.⁷

H.R. 5532 designates the Reconstruction Era National Monument as the Reconstruction Era National Historical Park to provide more permanent recognition of the site. The bill also establishes the Reconstruction Era National Historic Network, much like the National Underground Railroad Network to Freedom to coordinate preservation and education efforts nationwide and integrate local historical places, museums and interpretative programs.

COMMITTEE ACTION

H.R. 5532 was introduced on April 17, 2018, by Congressman James E. Clyburn (D-SC). The bill was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources, and within the Committee to the Subcommittee on Federal Lands. On July 17, 2018, the Subcommittee held a hearing on the legislation. On July 18, 2018, the Natural Resources Committee met to consider the bill. The Subcommittee was discharged by unanimous consent. Congressman Rob Bishop (R-UT) offered an amendment designated #1; it was adopted by unanimous consent. No additional amendments were offered and the bill, as amended, was ordered favorably reported to the House of Representatives by unanimous consent.

COMMITTEE OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Regarding clause 2(b)(1) of rule X and clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Natural Resources' oversight findings and recommendations are reflected in the body of this report.

COMPLIANCE WITH HOUSE RULE XIII AND CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET ACT

1. Cost of Legislation and the Congressional Budget Act. With respect to the requirements of clause 3(c)(2) and (3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and sections 308(a) and 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the following estimate for the bill from the Director of the Congressional Budget Office:

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, August 30, 2018.

Hon. ROB BISHOP,
Chairman, Committee on Natural Resources,
House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for H.R. 5532, the Reconstruction Era National Historical Park Act.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Janani Shankaran.

Sincerely,

KEITH HALL,
Director.

Enclosure.

H.R. 5532—Reconstruction Era National Historical Park Act

H.R. 5532 would redesignate the Reconstruction Era National Monument in Beaufort County, South Carolina, as the Reconstruction Era National Historical Park. The bill also would direct the National Park Service (NPS) to establish the Reconstruction Era National Historic Network, which would comprise existing units and programs of the NPS related to the history of the Reconstruction Era as well as the properties and programs of other federal, state, local, and private entities that join the network.

Redesignating the Reconstruction Era National Monument may require the NPS to update maps, informational materials, and signage. Based on the costs of similar tasks, CBO estimates that those costs would be insignificant. The bill also would permit the NPS to acquire additional lands for that park by means of donation, purchase using donated funds, or through a land exchange. CBO has no information on whether the NPS would expand the park; however, based on the experience of other NPS units, CBO expects that any such expansion would not occur for several years, and any associated management costs would be less than $500,000 over the 2019–2023 period.

As part of establishing the Reconstruction Era National Historic Network, the NPS would produce and distribute maps and interpretive guides, create and adopt an official symbol for the network, and provide assistance to participating entities. Using information from the NPS about the costs of administering similar efforts and based on the expected scope of the program, CBO estimates that the agency would need less than $500,000 in the first year following enactment for basic planning, developing educational materials, and coordinating activities with participating entities. In subsequent years, CBO estimates that the NPS would need about $1 million each year to manage the network and provide technical assistance to participating entities through cooperative agreements.

In total, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 5532 would cost $5 million over the 2019–2023 period; such spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

Enacting H.R. 5532 would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply.

CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 5532 would not increase net direct spending or on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2029.

H.R. 5532 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Janani Shankaran. The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

2. General Performance Goals and Objectives. As required by clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII, the general performance goal or objective of this bill is to redesignate the Reconstruction Era National Monument as the Reconstruction Era National Historical Park.

EARMARK STATEMENT

This bill does not contain any Congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined under clause 9(e), 9(f), and 9(g) of rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives.

This bill contains no unfunded mandates.

COMPLIANCE WITH H. RES. 5

Directed Rule Making. This bill does not contain any directed rule makings.
